After The Ball

The French Chef, who looked after the supper—direct from Paris for the occasion!

Did the snow and storm keep them at home? Bellevue and Hillcrest. "It did not!"

Guest Coleman was waiting for their weekly trip to Blairmore for the Coleman-Lethbridge game.

The apologies of the committee because the numbers on some tickets were so high.

LOST—By the Dance Committee, 200 balloons and 50 Jap lanterns.

Rhynas says it's the last Bachelor Dance for him. Why?

FOR SALE—Five miles of crepe streamers.

Who was it said "Dr. Lillie, D. O. D. (Director of Decorations)?"

Was Jack O'Neill at the dance????

The music came so fast, it was with difficulty Kelly worked in the supper announcement.

Lewis was here, there and everywhere, introducing strangers and washing dishes.

Peter Montalbetti says that two trips to Hillcrest the same night is harder work than balance day.

All that worried James Loe, after the first table—"How about the Committee? There won't be anything left to eat!"

Harold Pickney says "Let's do it again!"

And the Banff boys. Are they there? Were they there? All the time, boys! We thank you.

Without any exception, the dance given by the Bachelors of Blairmore at the opera house on Tuesday night was the biggest event ever. So great was the crowd that the spacious floor of the big dance hall could not accommodate all comfortably. Words of praise in behalf of the visiting Banff orchestra were heard from all sides. The decorations were the most tasty and elaborate ever seen around the Pass. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest and enjoy the time and company better. Among those present we noticed representatives of every town on the map—even Lethbridge. Refreshments were served during the later evening hours by the committee under the direct superintendence of their chef, imported from Paris, France, for the occasion, and it goes without saying that despite the fact that many appetites had been made hungry through having to plough their way for miles through deep snow to reach the place of merriment, there was lots and to spare.

Dancing commenced at 9 o'clock sharp, and kept up continuously until the clock struck four.

The thanks of all are due the committee for the successful termination of their untiring efforts.

Tonight's play off game between Lethbridge and Coleman on neutral ice at Blairmore was won by Lethbridge in a score of 3 to 1.

The game throughout was a good one and was played on good ice. About thirty Lethbridge people accompanied their team and were accorded a well fortified cage from which they could view the game, and the approaches to this cage were inspected occasionally by a local committee of ladies to see that no harm could be done to the visitors.

Council Holds

Regular Meeting

The regular fortnightly meeting of the local town council was held on Monday night, Mayor McLeod, Councillors Gillis, Piccarilli, McDonald, Montalbetti, McVey and Bartlett, and Secretary Wright being present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and the following accounts were passed for payment, subject to approval of the various committees: Workmen's Compensation Board $31.60.

Charles Forbes $8.00.
P. M. Christophers $12.00
West. Canadian Collieries, for January electric current—supplied $1586.64.

Department of municipal affairs $6.15.

Western Municipal News $6.44.
Communication was received from Supt. MacIntosh, of the C. P. R., stating that he would be pleased to have a conference with representatives of the council at some near date that could be arranged.

An application was received from the proprietor of the Cosmopolitan hotel for a special light rate, or a reduction in the present rate, which he considered rather high. The council, considering the nature of the institution in question and its value as a community centre, granted a nominal discount.

Opposition to the above was advanced by Councillors McDonald and Piccarilli, and a resolution introduced by them, asking that a similar discount be allowed all consumers of electric current, was defeated.

A communication from the secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities was tabled.

Account from L. H. Putnam for the sum of $95.00 legal fees was passed for payment.

Communication from the Fernie Board of Trade was tabled.

The question of fire equipment was given consideration and the committee was asked to go further into the matter and report at next meeting.

Advertising In The Country Weekly Paper

Advertising in the country weekly is the most valuable, advertising in the world. Expert advertisers say it is not only the most valuable, but the most scientific advertising in the world. Advertising in the magazines has to be general, for the reason that the average magazine that you receive today was set in type several weeks ago, and the advertising copy was probably prepared several weeks before that. This means that advertisers in the magazines have to anticipate conditions several weeks in advance of the time copy is prepared. This is not so with advertising in the country weekly, for the country weekly has the advantage over the magazine in that the weekly circulates in a comparatively small territory and the name of the merchant or the business man who is selling the goods can be placed in the advertisement. This is impossible in magazine advertising, which covers sometimes the whole nation.

The weekly newspaper also is considered the best advertising medium in the world by expert advertisers for the reason that it has a more intimate association with the family than a magazine or a daily newspaper.—Newark. (N.Y.) Union-Gazette.

Nobody had a silo.
Nobody wanted the fly.
Nobody wore white shoes.
Cream was 5 cents a pint.
Most young men had "livery bills."

Milkshake was a favorite drink.
Nobody cared about the price of coal-oil.
Farmers came to town for their mail.
The hired girl drew $1.50 a week.
The butcher threw in a chunk of livers.
Folks said pneumatic tires were a joke.
Nobody "listened in" on a telephone.
There were no sane Fourth nor electric motors.
Strawstacks were burned instead of baled.
People thought English sparrows were "birds."

Diplomatic protests have been made by China against British Columbia regulations prohibiting the employment of white girls in Chinese establishments as a measure offensive to the Chinese. The complaint was laid before the British consul for foreign affairs in London and by him transmitted to Ottawa. The British Columbia government was notified and the whole question is now being considered by Premier Oliver and members of his cabinet. The Chinese consul claims that a clause of the municipal act prohibiting the employment of white girls by Chinese is ultra vires of the province.

Governments as Co-operators

Ten or fifteen years ago the popular demand in connection with the solution of large and grave problems affecting economic and marketing conditions in these Western Provinces was for Government ownership and operation. This demand was, perhaps, most insistently urged in connection with liquor and terminal grain elevators. Today, no such demand is made, nor is there any expressed wish for the adoption of such a policy.

The reason for this marked change in public opinion is not far to seek. Manitoba tried Government ownership and operation of interior elevators, and it was far from being a success, either financially or in the character of the service rendered. Saskatchewan, on the other hand, tried the experiment of creating a large co-operative company, composed of the farmers themselves, managed and controlled entirely by farmers, but assisted with the financial backing of the Provincial Government.

From its inception the Saskatchewan experiment has been an outstanding success. That success has been due to the whole-hearted and loyal manner in which the farmers have supported their own institution—something it was predicted they would not do; it has been brought about by notably careful and efficient management; and, lastly, it has been made possible because of the sympathetic treatment accorded on all occasions by the Government, which has placed the resources and credit of the Province back in the control and management of that enterprise.

Saskatchewan has borrowed millions which have been loaned to the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Co. but that Company has met every payment of principal and interest as it has become due, and the Provincial treasury and the Saskatchewan taxpayer has not been called upon to put up a dollar. In addition to these direct loans, the Government has pledged the Provincial credit for other millions by giving guarantees to the Banks for the repayment of loans made direct to the Company. It is an acknowledged fact that without this Government backing, the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Co. could never have succeeded in its earlier years, nor have achieved the fine record which stands to its credit. So successful has the Saskatchewan experiment proved to be, that the other Provinces finally adopted it. And co-operative interior elevators have been followed by terminals owned and managed by these same companies.

The splendid results achieved by co-operative elevators led to the formation in Saskatchewan of the Province-wide co-operative creamery company, which took over all the Government owned and operated creameries, and has established many new ones and enlarged the old ones. It is reported in its field the success of the co-operative elevator companies, and has established cold storage plants and other subsidiary enterprises.

Next came co-operative stockyards, which are yet in their infancy but which promise to become an important factor in the development and prosperity of the livestock industry of the West.

Co-operative wool marketing is now recognized as the most feasible and best method of handling the wool clip of the West, and has for some years past demonstrated its practicability by obtaining for the sheepmen of the West a higher price for raw wool than could otherwise have been secured by them.

Co-operation between Government and people has also resulted in Saskatchewan in a very rapid extension of the telephone lines and facilities throughout the Province, bringing the farm home into immediate and direct communication with market towns, doctors and nurses, and removing to a large degree that isolation from which the farm home suffered in the past and which was one of the chief obstacles to keeping many people on the land.

The successes which stand to the credit of all enterprises in the West based on the co-operative principle have resulted in the development of a pronounced public opinion that it was far better not to rely absolutely upon a parental form of government, but, by co-operation of Government and people, build up a sturdy, self-reliant Province and Dominion. Now when a difficulty presents itself, people do not weakly turn to Governments with demands that they solve the problems for the people, but the people themselves tackle the problem and, with Government assistance, are proving their ability to solve and overcome their difficulties.

Another valuable feature of this adherence to co-operative principles and methods is found in the practical training being afforded thousands of farmers' sons in the conduct and management of large business enterprises. The value of such training can hardly be over-estimated, and is having its effect in the adoption of more business-like methods in all departments of the farm, resulting in the saving of countless thousands of dollars in many small ways to the farmers in their own operations. Strict business methods are replacing slovenly ones which at the same time the man on the land is kept in close touch with world conditions and markets, and is steadily securing a larger grasp of those economic forces which have a direct bearing on the price of his product and his resultant prosperity.

Trappers Are Disappointed

Absence of Cold Weather Has Resulted in Hides in Poor Condition.

Word has reached Regina from the northern part of the province that many who went into the hinterland of Saskatchewan and Manitoba with the expectation of gathering in pelts and bringing out harvest in the spring have returned with their traps in disgust. The absence of cold weather has resulted in fur-bearing animals neglecting to don their winter coats and hides are in poor condition and in some cases almost hairless. Even Bruin, it is reported, has not sought underground quarters and is still blundering through the bush hunting berries.

Man was made to mourn and woe was made to see that he does it.

U. S. Bank Failures

Many Canadians will be surprised to read in connection with two of the latest failures of banks in North Dakota that the capital of one is given as $25,000 and of another $10,000. This capitalization looks extremely small to Canadians who are familiar with banks capitalized at sums running into the millions. The American policy has been to encourage the little banks on the theory that a multiplicity of banking institutions would give elasticity to credit and make it easier to do business.

The result has been the creation of hundreds of local banks, working on local capital, as contrasted with the Canadian system of great banking institutions, with a central organization and branches in a score of cities and towns in every province. In a period of depression scores of these small banks in the United States close their doors. Such a condition cannot be added to the panicky feeling that exists at a time when there is restricted business, unemployment and a conserving of capital. From this distance it looks as if a bank with a capitalization of $10,000 was too much of a gambling proposition. In good times it might be all right; in hard times it becomes a menace.

Banking is a business that requires stability and the little bank, with no reserve, can hardly guarantee it.

HEART SO BAD WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Vatenan, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes:—"I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day, noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I decided to try them, and before I had taken more than two boxes I could see that they were bringing me back to my feet. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I am now feeling like a new woman, and proved a blessing to me, and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

Home Made Bread

Home made bread is without doubt the cheapest and most healthful food that can be produced for human consumption. It is the most completely digested solid food in the world, over 90% of it being transformed into health and strength. It yields nearly twice as much nourishment as rice or potatoes, and is ten times as nourishing as an equal value of meat. No bread is more truly wholesome or more perfectly satisfactory than that baked at home in which Royal Yeast Cakes are used.

Scientists have discovered a new and truly wonderful use for Royal Yeast Cakes. Physicians are prescribing it with remarkable success for conditions attributed to poor blood conditions. Soak a cake of Royal Yeast for half an hour in a cup of lukewarm water with one teaspoon sugar. Then stir well and strain once or twice through muslin and drink the liquid. BETTER results will be obtained by allowing it to soak over night and drinking half an hour before breakfast. Repeat as often as desired. Send name and address for free booklet entitled "Royal Yeast for Better Health."

Rebellion Days, 1884-85

By O. G. MARRS (Little Clerk).

Here was war upon us with a vengeance and an active hostile for a guest, or prisoner—which? On thinking the matter over I told Mr. Indian he must stay at the house until my return, putting him on his honor to take care of my wife and children, and this they both faithfully promised.

Next morning early I started in for the Carrot River settlement, and as the ridges were bare of snow, burnt the grass on route, this being the usual native custom in the spring, as later on the sloughs were burnt round. Thus go old bottom could accumulate, and that is the great danger in a fall fire, as with several years' collection, both timber and soil will be destroyed, and, naturally, very great injury done to all fur-bearing animals.

On reaching the crossing at Carrot River, I found a number of the settlers busily engaged in fortifying a log house. One of them dashed up to me, catching my bridle rein and shouting, "Indians in every bluff. My reply was dry and short to the effect that I had not seen them. A number gathered round, and certainly the news was bewildering if half of it was true. Indians reported in active rebellion on all sides. Much murder and massacre among the lone settlers and ranchers and our side badly defeated. Fort Carlton was burnt and every settler for many miles round had taken refuge in Prince Albert. They had formed a committee of defence under Capt. Myers and these gentlemen I went to see at once. I related the facts as to the Indian at my house and asked as to what disposition had better be made of him. I also stated if they wished him brought in as a prisoner I would undertake to do it. The committee required for a consultation, and I took a look round the premises. A small enclosure of building logs was being placed in position round the house to act as a stockade. The place swarmed with women and children. Downstairs in the house were a number of old guns and rifles, all loaded and standing loosely in the corner. Picking up one, the stock fell off. "Ah," was the remark, "you should have had the head of the wall up." The rifle evidently acted as a key. There was little or no attempt at discipline, and I could by no means consider placing my family here for protection.

I was asked to come in by the committee, whose decision was that after carefully considering the question of my captive Indian who had openly declared himself a rebel, that I was to use my own judgment in the matter, but to warn him not to pass close to this fort or he would be liable to be shot. Capt. Myers then kindly offered me the position of second in command, but this I was compelled to decline. When he pressed me for a reason I gave him several, the principal one being that his fort was not defensible.

There was no water supply, no bastions, no lookouts, in fact it was a wooden trap, and would be much safer with my family in a bluff. All I was of the opinion that the active part of this war was not against the settler, but against the government. The captain then asked for supplies and I told him I would be happy to bring in all surplus ammunition and food that I had in stock and take his receipts, and this he was quite pleased with.

Before I leave this brief reference to the famous fort in Carrot River, Tom McKay, that well-known loyalist, told me the points were hit by a number of French half-breeds were just starting to raid this post when news of Middleton's army advance reached them and the plan was dropped. It appeared the French knew there were a number of Orangemen in the Carrot River company, and these were particularly disliked by them, for in the old H. B. governing days this society was unknown. In fact, extreme toleration of all forms of religion was an outstanding feature of the company's rule.

I camped at Finlason's that night, two fine Ontario men, who, poor chaps, afterwards perished in a vain attempt to reach the north end of Lac Du Brochet on a trading expedition, this in 1887-8. I spent the best part of one night in trying to dissuade them from trying, for they were very green as to northern conditions, but without success. These men, like myself, went out in the fort, and later on drove their fine herd of cattle out through the hills and sold them well to Middleton's army. If conditions got worse they intended going away in the little wooden cattle, but like myself they concluded victory would rest with our side sooner or later.

Shorter Working Hours In Ontario

Soldier-Labor Member Introduces Bill Which Specifies Maximum Working Time.

Toronto.—A start has been made in the direction of establishing an eight-hour day in the province of Ontario. In the legislature, Sergeant-Major J. McNamara, Soldier-Labor member for Riverdale, introduced a bill which will be known as the Maximum Work Hour Day Act. It provides for an eight-hour day, exclusive of the meal hour, and for a period of rest of at least eight consecutive hours from the ending of work on any one day, to the beginning of work on the next day.

Systematic overtime will be considered illegal, except in cases of necessity, and in that case, only ten consecutive hours shall be worked.

Gets Big Share of Immigration

Hall of Immigrants From Britain to Canada Secured by Ontario.

Ottawa.—Officials of the Department of Immigration and Colonization fail to confirm the statement attributed to ex-Controller H. J. Halford, who represented the Trades and Labor Conference of Canada at the international conference in London, to the effect that seventy per cent. of the people accepted in England for emigration to Canada had selected Ontario as their destination. The official figures for the years from 1911 to the close of the last fiscal year, show that an average of forty-six per cent. of the total English emigration was destined to Ontario.

The lowest average in any year of the period was forty-three per cent., which has been the prevailing average for the last two years, and the highest was forty-nine per cent. in the fiscal year 1914-15.

Bolsheviks Want War

Four Hundred Thousand Effectives On Various Fighting Fronts of Russia.

Constantinople.—Halt the Bolshevik forces are grouping for military operations, according to latest information received here, with forty divisions of the Soviet army on the Polish frontier and twelve divisions on the Rumanian frontier.

Those on the Polish front are assembling in the regions of Smolensk, Vitebsk and Orsha, the report says. The total Bolshevik forces are estimated to number 600,000 effectives, of which 400,000 are on the various fronts of Russia.

Liquor Question in B. C.

Esquimalt Conservative Charges Oliver Government With Side-stepping.

Victoria.—At a session of the Legislature, B. H. Poppley, Conservative member for Esquimalt, charged that by referring to the liquor question in the King's speech, the government was seeking to sidestep the issue, and that it was not prepared fully to carry out the mandate of the people, as delivered in the recent plebiscite.

He demanded a proper act, properly enforced, and he characterized the administration of the present act by the Attorney-General as mere camouflage.

J. H. Neelds, Labor member for South Vancouver, remarked that as the province had approved government control of the sale of liquor, it was but reasonable that it should go further and take control of the sale of such articles as milk, coal and other necessities of life.

Japanese Reversists Revolt.

Tokio.—A special dispatch to the Jiji Shimpo, from Muroran, on the island of Yezo, says that 1,200 army reversists have revolted in criticism against the attitude of the authorities with regard to the shooting of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, of the United States cruiser Albany, at Vladivostok.

Gets Fifteen Years.

Belfast.—Timothy Crowell, of Ballylanders, County Limerick, has been sentenced to fifteen years penal servitude for taking part in an attack upon the police. Search of his person had resulted in the discovery of three revolvers and 78 rounds of ammunition.

Base Milk Products on Butterfat. Toronto.—Amendments to the Dairy Standards Act, so that payments for milk and cream for manufacturing purposes shall be on a butterfat basis, were promulgated by Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, at a meeting of the legislative committee.

Hon. C. D. McPherson

Col. McPherson is the new Minister of Public Works in the Manitoba Government. He is also proprietor and editor of the Daily Graphic, Postage in Prairie.

China Protests

Chinese Government Thinks B.C. Measure Personal Affront.

Victoria.—Diplomatic protests have been made by China against British Columbia regulations prohibiting the employment of white girls in Chinese establishments, as a measure offensive to the Chinese. The complaint of the Chinese Government was laid before the British consul for foreign affairs in London, and by him transmitted to Ottawa. The British Columbia Government was notified and the whole question is now being considered by the Premier and members of his Cabinet. The Chinese consul claims that Clause F Municipal Act, prohibiting the employment of white girls by Chinese is ultra vires of the province.

C. N. N. Improvements

Arrangements Made to Move All Freight Traffic at Minimum of 30 Miles Per Hour.

Winnipeg.—Western operating officials of the National Railways concluded their several days' conference with General Manager Warren in Winnipeg and have returned home to carry out new plans for improvements. The feature was the decision to replace those sections where the 60-pound steel remains, with standard 85-pound steel and complete ballasting so that freight trains can be moved at a minimum of 30 miles. This will make less equipment necessary, by increasing speed and tonnage.

It was reported fifteen thousand more cars of coal were handled last year than in 1915, while the Hanna-Medford Hat branch work is proceeding. Two thousand feet of the Red Deer bridge on this branch has been completed.

With the improved national system and the C.P.R. getting into Drumheller this season, movement of Alberta coal will be more than doubled over other years. Mr. Warren will leave for Vancouver.

Opening Of the Manitoba Legislature

Hon. J. B. Baird, Member for Mount-Eden, Elected Speaker.

Winnipeg.—With the house composed of four distinct groups and the Norris administration controlling only 21 votes of the 55, the sixteenth legislature of the province was opened by the Lieutenant-governor, Sir James Adair. The proceedings were entirely formal, the Lieutenant-Governor reading the speech from the throne, and the house adjourning after Hon. J. B. Baird, member for Mountain, had been elected speaker and several resolutions relating to standing committees had been passed.

Hindenburg Still Talks.

Bremen.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, interviewed here, declared the French were "hankering" for the Ruhr region, a danger that must be taken very seriously. He said the military leaders of France were unable to rid themselves of their fear of Germany.

Refuse to Hear Mrs. MacSwiney.

Lisbon, Neb.—The Nebraska house of representatives by a vote of 48 to 44, refused to permit Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, to speak before the legislature on the Irish question.

Prince to Tour India.

London.—The London Times says it understands that the Prince of Wales has planned a tour of India in October or November next.

Premier Drury Takes Strong Stand On Prohibition Question

Bitterness In India

Duke of Connaught Says Shadow Has Lengthened Over Face of the Land.

London.—The Duke of Connaught, informally inaugurating the Council of State and the India legislative assembly at Delhi, India, delivered a speech in which he said in part:

"Since I landed, I have felt around me bitterness and estrangement between those who have been my friends. The shadow of Amritsar has lengthened over the fair face of India. I know and misapprehensions of the past; to forgive where you have to forgive and to join hands and work together to realize the hopes that arise from today."

"As an old friend of India, I appeal to you all, British and Indians, to bury along with the dead past the mistakes and misunderstandings of the past; to forgive where you have to forgive and to join hands and work together to realize the hopes that arise from today."

Turk Delegates To Britain

Nationalists and Constantinople Must Appoint Only One Delegation to Conference.

London.—In view of the expressed intention of two Turkish delegations, the Nationalists and the Constantinopolists, to appoint delegates to the London conference, Great Britain has intimated to the Constantinople Government that two separate delegations cannot be received and that they must decide between themselves which will represent Turkey.

The original invitation was sent to the authorities at Constantinople, and while hope was expressed that the Nationalists would join the Constantinople delegation, no invitation was extended to them. Official circles believe that the Nationalists and the Constantinople Government will eventually unite into one for the conference.

To Encourage Mixed Farming

Four Ministers Address Annual Banquet of the Holstein-Friesian Association.

Toronto.—Four ministers of agriculture gave addresses at the thirteenth annual banquet of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada. Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, of the Dominion Government; Hon. Walter Lea, of Prince Edward Island; Hon. Duncanson Marshall, of Alberta; and Hon. Manning Doherty, of Ontario, were the speakers.

Hon. Dr. Tolmie, who is a successful breeder of Holsteins, said that the policy of the Federal Government to encourage mixed farming with livestock as the basis. The government, he said, intended to appoint a demonstrator of the value of milk and other dairy products as compared with other articles of food with a view to encouraging the consumption of dairy products.

Belgian Workers Seize Industries.

Brussels.—Workers in Wevelgem, West Flanders, attempt to seize several manufacturing plants to exploit them for their own benefit. Gen darmes interfered and forestalled the attempt. Six of the plants have closed down.

United States Has Ambitious Naval Plans

Naval Committee Would Ignore Disarmament Plea and Keep On Building.

Washington.—A United States navy "as large as that of any other power," is advocated in the report of the Senate Naval Committee today to the Senate. The Committee, in replying to the Borch resolution, said: "It is not practical and is not a sound policy to suspend naval construction for a period of six months, or at all. It is the completion of the great 1916 naval programme, except that two huge naval aircraft carriers be built in place of 12 destroyers."

"Capital ships remain the principal units of sea power, the committee said, adding that submarines and aircraft were as yet only auxiliary forces."

The committee report to which Senator King, Democrat, Utah, plans to file a minority report, expressed a desire that an agreement for limits

Toronto.—Premier E. C. Drury made his position on the referendum question clear in an address to a gathering of representative business men, called together by the Toronto referendum committee. The Premier declared himself strongly in favor of prohibition, and he expressed the hope that the result of the referendum to be taken in April on liquor importation from another province, would be to knock out the liquor traffic in Ontario.

"I am going to do what I can to help you," the Premier said. "I cannot take any part officially," Mr. Drury explained, "the question is now out of the realm of the government and it is left to the discretion of the people. Our task as a government is to enforce the law. As a private individual, I intend to take a stand on this question, because I shudder to think of the condition in which we would find ourselves if we lost it."

The Premier gave the assurance that the referendum, of the majority voted to put the ban on the importation of liquor, would be the last word on the prohibition question. In his mind, there was no doubt as to its finality. He emphasized this.

U. S. To Limit Immigration

Senate Approves Measure Restricting Influx of Foreign Peoples to America.

Washington.—Restrictions on immigration, said by committee members to be more drastic than those proposed in the house in the Johnson bill, are contained in an emergency measure, approved and reported by the Senate Immigration Committee. The measure, decided on as a substitute for the bill passed several weeks ago by the house, would become effective next April 1st, and continue in force only until June 30, 1922.

During the fifteen months the bill's restrictions would be effective, Senate leaders are confident permanent immigration legislation will be enacted, and in the meantime, the predicted flood of aliens would be stopped.

The bill as reported by the Senate Committee, would limit the immigrants admitted to the United States annually from any one country to the per cent. of the nationals of that country in the United States at the time the 1910 census was taken. The measure, however, specifically provides that it shall "not be construed attending, repealing, or modifying any law or agreement now existing which forbids the admission of any alien on the basis of nationality or geographical boundary."

This provision was interpreted to mean that treaties now existing between United States and Japan would not in any wise be affected.

Tornado In Georgia.

Oconee, Ga.—Two white persons and twenty-two negroes were killed when a tornado struck here, seriously damaging the plant of the Cleveland-Oconee Lumber Company and other property. Between thirty and forty negroes were injured by flying debris. A hospital train was rushed to the scene of the disaster. After striking here the tornado continued toward Augusta, and descended again between Macon and Canak. Damage is estimated at several millions of dollars.

Smuts Government Returned

Result of South African Elections Indicates Defeat of Nationalists.

Capetown.—Enormous majorities were given the South African party in Durban and Capetown while the Labor party suffered a severe reverse in the Rand district. In Capetown the South African party gained two seats; in Durban three; in the Rand eight and in East London, one.

The victory of the party headed by Prime Minister Smuts is attributed to the fact that the workingmen voted against the secession issue raised by General Hertzog and did not pay much attention to sectional issues raised by Labor leaders.

General Smuts, prime minister of the Union of South Africa, was elected to the House of Assembly from the district of Pretoria West. Returns indicate the South African party under the leadership of General Smuts had won a victory.

Ontario Schools Bar U.S. Book.

Toronto.—It was definitely announced by Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, that Col. Woods' naval history, "Flag and Fleet," would be withdrawn from the list of supplementary reading books authorized for Ontario schools. This work has recently been criticized as "antagonistic and insulting" to the part played by the United States navy in the recent war.

Strike Coal At The Pas.

The Pas.—Outcropping in two places close to the shore of the Carrot River, west of this place, lignite coal has been discovered by Indians and analysis proves it to be an important strike.

Crown Prince to Sail.

Tokio.—Official announcement is made that the Japanese Crown Prince will sail for England on March 4. Nothing is said relative to recent rumors that he might visit the United States during his trip to the Orient.

Observations

Dad Flitverbaat, of West Coleman, having nothing else to do for the time being, was found at the curling rink at Coleman last week when the big bonspiel was in progress. He was a very interested spectator, indeed, and acknowledged himself an admirer of the historic game, but not from any experimental acquaintance with it, since he had never taken it up for his own entertainment. But he has opinions about the ethical side of the bonspiel and he confided them to the scribe as follows:

"What worries me about these 'bonspiels', he said, 'is whether or not all their artists on the ice has squared themselves with their women folks at home before they come here. I notice they carry their brooms along the street as if they were proud and don't seem to mind what they look like or how ridiculous a grow-up man sporting a broom in daylight may seem to other people. It's real nice to see 'em so brave and courageous like."

"Just the same, I'm inclined to think some of 'em mightn't be quite as willin' to handle a broomstick if their wives axed 'em to do it. I've done a bit of sweepin' up now an' then myself. I sh'n't read out of it, I confess, but somehow I don't believe I'd ever hev the nerve to reuse Ma if I wuz one of them curlin' sports that wuz so fond of handlin' the broom at that bonspiel."

"It reminds me of Jim Carter, back in Urice County, years ago, 'fore I come west. He wuz one of them fellers that thinks a good deal of themselves and not quite enough of their wives. Missus Carter kept hens and sold eggs around town, and one day she axed him to carry a couple dozen down to the store to trade 'em for some tea. He up and said he wazn't goin' to be seen totin' henstuff round town an' told her to do it herself."

"Well, the missus didn't say nothin' 'st then, an' got ready to do her own errand. An hour or so later she went down town, and as luck would hev it she met Jim with one of his chains right on Main Street, 'bout 'carryin' brooms, on their way to the rink. Missus Carter got mad then. She had a purty bad temper when it broke loose and this day it awfully broke out. She was a big tall strong woman, too, 'bout the size of two of Jim, and she just laid hold of that broom, pulled it away from him and overleasin' slambasted him with it over the head. They finally come to terms, an' Jim took the eggs and went on to the store. 'But he didn't curl any more that day."

"So, when I see all these 'ere sports in Coleman, I jest put up with 'em of Jim Carter an' wonder if they've all fixed it up fair and square with their women folks at home afore they come."

Always a Way

There is always a way to rise, my lad;
Always a way to advance.
But the road that leads to Mount
Success

Does not pass by the way of Chance,
It goes through the stations of Work and Strive.

Through the Valley of Persevere;
And the man who succeeds while others fail

Must be willing to pay most dear,
For there's always a way to fail, my lad,

Always a way to slide;
And the men you find at the foot of the hill

All sought for an easy ride,
And so on and up, though the road be rough,

And the storms come thick and fast,
There is room at the top for the fellow who tries.

And victory comes at last.

A Humane Mayor

Talk about our Sunday blue laws, here's a decree issued not long ago by the mayor of a little commune in the Pyrenees:

Whereas "the young people of the commune are wont to meet and dance every Sunday after mass, and the noise they make frightens the cocks, hens and other animals of the village, we hereby prohibit dancing within the bounds of the commune during the hours in which domestic animals take their repose."

More Beer Wanted

"With the slogan "More Beer, Cheaper Beer and Better Beer," the Moderation League, a recently formed body, has been circulating petitions all over the province and apparently are meeting with a large response. A number of forms have been placed in prominent business places throughout the Pass and have obtained many signatures."

The promoters of this movement are going to place the petition before the provincial legislature which it assembles during this month, and hope that the government will take action in regard to the present bootlegging. They believe that by government control and the sale of light beer, such as was manufactured in the province previous to the coming into force of the closing of the bars, the evils of whiskey drinking would be largely eliminated.

It is expected that when the petition is presented to the provincial legislature it will contain more signatures than there were votes cast in favor of the abolition of the importation of liquor. The government will have to deal with the subject in some manner and the moderates hope to influence them in the direction of greater facilities for beer and elimination of private profit in spirituous liquors.

The fact that signatures to the petition already exceeds the votes cast either for or against importation of liquor is taken as significant by officials of the league. They maintain that this fact indicates that the recent plebiscite was no measure of prohibition sentiment; that thousands of people who voted to bar out shipments of liquor to individuals did so with the anticipation that the government ultimately would take over the control of liquor dispensing in the province and such an interprovincial bar to shipments for individuals within the province would then be necessary to make government control effective.

Arrangements are being made to have sleeping cars at Lethbridge depot for accommodation of Passengers attending the Lethbridge game, and those desirous of taking in the trip on Tuesday next are requested to notify either Mr. Chappell or Mr. Rhynas for reservations.

Dangerous Teeth

(By Walt Mason)

Now the docs, those wise old chaps, say our teeth should all come out; for they cause all our diseases, from the measles to the gout. Once my teeth like pearls were gleaming and I viewed the same with pride, as I chewed the white steaming with potatoes, on the side. Now my teeth are all departed and no hope on earth I see, though the dentist says he's started on a bakelite set for me. I had colic in Toronto, and the doctor said, said he: "You must see a dentist pronto, who will pull out molars three." I had measles in Hoboken, and the doctor said, "You gink, all your symptoms are a token that your teeth are on the blink." And my whiskers in Empory, fell and fell, and soon were gone, and it was the same old story—twas because no teeth were drawn. Passed around by stern physicians from one dentist to the next, I am filled with vain ambitions and my soul is sore perplexed. Now that all my teeth are missing, what resource is there for me, when some new disease goes hissing through my shoulder or my knee? When I'm sore in loins and thighs, chafed from carrying my meagre, how will doctors judge the blame when they cannot blame my teeth?

The Sacrifice of Citizenship

Under the above heading the Presbyterian Witness speaks some truths and makes some wise observations, to which it will be well to give consideration at this time.

"The citizen has his rights, his duties and his responsibilities, and as the Witness points out, to be a really good citizen involves a good deal of sacrifice. Too often, however, the citizens have most of the sacrificing of time and effort to be done by the representatives they have elected, the mayor and councilors or aldermen. This should not be. The members of the civic government should have the helpful assistance at all times of the citizens. Too many seem to think that taking an interest in civic affairs means only fault-finding and criticism. Well-founded criticism is the right and duty of citizens, and if given and taken in the proper spirit is helpful to the members of the town government and beneficial to the town. The citizens' interest in town affairs should not be shown only by criticism, however. Approval should be expressed when the members of the civic government do good work, and citizens should be ready to offer suggestions in connection with town business. Above all, before jumping at conclusions and condemning the mayor or councilors for this or that, done or left undone, find out if you know all the facts as they know them, and then form your judgment.

The issue are the remarks of the Presbyterian Witness: "Very commonly we have regarded citizenship as a privilege. The citizen is thought of as distinguished from the alien, the foreigner. He is on a higher plane, opportunities and rights are his to which others can lay no claim." "Citizenship" today as of old, if not a boast, is at least an expression of rather well-satisfied self-complacency.

Too commonly we have forgotten, too frequently we all forget that citizenship is a vocation, an instant mandate, a living sacrifice. The citizen, and especially the citizen in a modern democracy, is a person who, for the sake of the larger good, the higher well-being of all, is ready to forego the lower personal privileges and indulgences which might have been secured to himself. The objective which he sets before himself is progress which shall not be confined to a few, but shared, both in the activities through which it is attained and in the results which it secures by the people at large. He lives to join hands with whatever neighbors are about him in order that all may go forward together.

The one who fails to recognize that his duty to his nation involves definite consideration of the people among whom he lives and practical co-operation with them in working out the problems of common well-being, is one who has yet to learn the first elements of citizenship. Only when this ideal is cherished and practised from early years may citizenship be expected to attain its full fruition; and the lamentable failures in civic responsibility and public service which are so common in any review of current life, may largely be traced to ignorance of or indifference to this basic requirement.

The citizen is called to a life of practical self-devotion and sacrifice. He must mingle with men, imparting to them, discussing with them, counselling, exhorting, encouraging, reproving, dissuading, repressing. His leisure and rest and recreation, many hours which he might have devoted to family joys, to social pleasure, to intellectual or aesthetic enjoyment, must often be devoted to the duties of community service. He will often be criticized, opposed, misinterpreted, maligned. Often he will find that even in public service he must work and work alone. Often he will find that his colleagues are men difficult to work with, indifferent or only half sympathetic, or even wholly impossible. A hundred times the thought will rise in his mind—"Is it really any use? What will all search? And I am better drop it."

Hillcrest Happenings

(By Felix)

The mines at Hillcrest are working on a pretty steady basis.

In spite of the soft weather we had, the boys kept the curling stick going.

Edward Howcroft returned on Monday from a two years' tour in the States.

Hillcrest was well represented at the ex-jailors' ball at Blairmore on Tuesday night.

We understand that O'Neill has accepted a new position—short stop at hockey matches. Congratulations and regret, O'Neill.

Several from Hillcrest received their first baptism at the regular meeting of the L.O.O.F. at Bellevue on Monday evening last.

Joe Fungali, our well known livery man, has shown up again, after spending a few days in British Columbia, where he reports "there's nothing doing."

It is understood that the Hillcrest Club, which really belongs to the veterans and workmen of Hillcrest, has been disposed of to the occupants of the greenhouse. Rather nifty on someone's part. Anyway, it will all be rectified in time.

The dance at the Union Hall, given by the Blue Diamond Orchestra from Nelson, was a treat and was well attended. We had a little more high class music than what we are used to. It is to be hoped that our old friend G. Noble, of Bellevue, who is one of them, pays us a returned visit.

There is a movement on foot to remove the pictures show from the upper story of the Union hall, owing to the dangerous situation it places patrons in. If anything ever happened to cause a panic, people would be trapped like a bunch of rats and it is questionable whether the hall complies with the law.

From the Land of Wealth

200 Russians Returning Home With $500,000 From U.S.

With a total of nearly $500,000 in their purses and $250,000 worth of jewels, 200 Russians, who arrived in Boston seven years ago as poor immigrants, are about to return to their native land and expect to spend the rest of their lives in ease. They will sail for Libau and proceed on horseback to the interior, where their families await them.

For Both Horse and Stable.—There is a good deal of similarity, physically speaking, between human beings and the lower animals. Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil is an entirely reliable remedy for such ailments and mishaps in both human beings and the lower orders of animals.

Will Reinburse German Sailors. German sailors thrown out of employment by the delivery to the allies of the German merchant fleet, are to be reimbursed to the extent of 60,000 marks. Two-thirds of the sum is to be paid by the shipowners and one-third by the government. An agreement to this effect was reached after two years' negotiations.

Heart Disease Relieved in 30 Minutes. Dr. Agnew's Remedy for the Heart gives instant relief in all cases of Chronic or Sympathetic Heart Disease in 30 minutes, and quickly effects a cure in all cases of temporary Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Stuttering Speech, Pain in Left Side, and all symptoms of a diseased heart. Sale of Alberta Herefords In Chicago Prices Realized for the Total Herd Averaged $450 a Head.

An entire shipment of more than fifty head of Hereford cattle from the Curtis Cattle Company of Peace Valley, Alberta, has just been sold at Chicago. The prices realized for the total herd averaged $450 a head. Several particularly choice animals fetched more than $1,000.

It is interesting to note that eighty head of the best cattle from this sale were purchased by a Chicago firm who have a large ranch adjoining that of the Curtis Company and intend shipping these animals back to Alberta where they will become the nucleus of another Hereford herd. With such stock as this for a foundation, this should soon grow into one of the best herds of Hereford cattle in the province.

After-Theatre Suppers

BY LORETTO C. LYNCH.
As Acknowledged Expert in All Matters Pertaining to Household Management.

What is so delightful as the little surprise supper when you come home on a winter's evening from the real theatre or the little motion picture house just around the corner? With the prices of restaurant foods today, only the very prosperous can indulge in the after-theatre suppers offered by the best restaurants.

What to have is the next consideration. Perhaps sandwiches and hot cocoa will settle the question very nicely. And it is well to have the sandwiches prepared and the cocoa made before leaving.

There are a number of appropriate fillings. A delicious filling is made of boneless sardines mashed to a paste and mixed with finely chopped, hard-cooked eggs. A few grains of cayenne give just the right seasoning. Cream cheese, chopped olives and walnuts spread on thinly sliced brown bread makes another inexpensive filling. Canned shrimp or crab or lobster or tuna, finely chopped, seasoned with mayonnaise, makes a well-liked filling, but is a bit more expensive than those previously suggested.

Sandwiches keep fresh if wrapped in waxed paper and then placed in the refrigerator. In fact, sandwiches so stored might be made the day before. This is sometimes desirable when a large number are to be served.

Salads, too, are appropriate for serving late at night. Good salad can be made from first quality canned chicken when freshly cooked chicken is not available. Cut the chicken into inch cubes with a sharp knife. Add an equal quantity of diced table celery. Set this away in the refrigerator. Clean the lettuce and place it in a covered tin can in the refrigerator. Chill the plates. When the time comes to serve, moisten the chicken and celery with mayonnaise and place on leaves of lettuce on the chilled plates.

Hot coffee is frequently served with cold salads. Make it, arranging to feed it from the grounds before leaving home. It will take but a moment to reheat it when the time comes to serve.

At a supper in one of the large metropolitan hotels the other evening I tasted a salad that some hostess looking for something new and most palatable will want to serve. The salad was termed Salade Archduke. On a leaf of lettuce there was a parallel arrangement of strips of brilliant red pimento, soft, yellowed, sprouting tips and cool green strips of skinned, alligator pear. This arrangement was repeated until the well-trimmed leaf of lettuce had been entirely covered.

The chafing-dish offers splendid opportunity for after-theatre snacks. Whatever you intend making be sure you have as much as possible prepared beforehand. The butter call-d for should be measured on the tablespoon and then rolled into dainty little balls and dropped into a bowl of cold water. If toast is required it may be made beforehand if care is taken that it toasts but slightly. Reheating for a moment will then make it just right. Other ingredients should be measured and set aside.

Be sure that your chafing-dish is in working order. Many a little party has been spoiled because the hostess discovered at the last moment that there was no alcohol in the lamp or that the electric connection was out of order. Cake—either cut cake or individual cakes—are appropriate. But these should be of the plainer varieties. Elaborate pastries are not appropriate, especially just before going to bed.

A Man is just as Young and Strong as his Blood

No man can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure, for rich, red blood is what strength is based upon.

When you see a strong, vigorous man, who never knows when he is liked, you may wonder that such a man has coursing through his veins rich, red blood. Many people have thin, pale blood. They are weak, tire easily, become discouraged quickly, and sometimes feel like giving up the struggle. Such folks need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is sold by druggists in liquid or tablet form.

Send 10 cents to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package of the tablets. NAGARA FALLS, Ont. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery at times for the past three years with wonderful results, and I take great pleasure in saying a word to boost the cause of "Freedom from Illness." I am a physician by occupation, which is quite fatiguing and injurious to the system, but since taking the "Discovery" I have had no drawback for me. Three cheers for Doctor Pierce's medicine!—WILLIAM H. DEMPSEY, R. 32 Bridge Street.

Her Lasting Job.

Willie—I think Peggy will make a fine wife. I have been calling on her for six months now and nearly always have found her darning her father's socks.

To a young man belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active life; yet nine out of ten suffer from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of weakness, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weak blood with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy attractive women.

A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO GOOD HEALTH

Most Troubles Affecting Women Are Due to Poor Blood.

This new, red blood is supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these Pills thousands of women have found benefit when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer. Among the many women who have benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been Mrs. L. Hicks, Round Hill, N.S., who says: "I suffered very much from indigestion, my blood seemed weak and watery, my strength failed, and I was so easily tired that my work was a burden. I had often read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them, and I can truly say that after using three boxes I found myself gaining, and under a further use of the pills all my old-time energy and vitality were restored. Out of my own experience I can strongly recommend this medicine." You can buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

47,000 Miles of Films

Export Alone From United States Amounts to That.

Motion picture films sent out of the United States in 1920 aggregated 47,000 miles in length or nearly enough to extend twice around the globe at the equator, and incoming films were nearly half as much in length. These tremendous figures, says a statement from the National City Bank of New York, illustrate the bigness and constant growth of the motion picture industry of the world and especially of the United States, which is by far the largest manufacturer of films and also by far the world's largest exporter of films both exposed and unexposed.

The Wife Scored.

The husband, who had a great habit of leaving his wife, went out driving in the country with her, when they met a farmer driving a span of mules. Just as they were about to pass the farmer's rig the mules turned their heads toward the auto and brayed vociferously.

Turning to his wife, the husband cuttingly remarked, "Relatives of yours, I suppose?"

"Yes," said his wife sweetly, "by marriage."

An Attractive Dress of Black Net

By Gertrude Beréford.

The all-black dress always attracts certain women who realize that their beauty is greatly enhanced when attired in black. This model is fashioned from fine black net over a foundation of black crepe satin. The bodice shows the swathed lines that are quite popular at this time. The V-shaped neck opening is very pleasing, while the sleeves are wide and hardly full-length. The rather bouffant, curved side panels are trimmed with crepe ribbon. This mode or ornamentation is also apparent on the loose sleeves, while the neck opening is accentuated by similar trimming. Should a touch of color be desired, a garland of flowers might be used as a girle.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

This Woman's Letter Tells You How To Pass The Crisis Safely.

Lascelles, P.Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I couldn't see what I was doing. We live on a farm, so there is lots to do, but many who felt as I did would have been in bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but I put Vegetable Compound ahead of them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me." Mrs. DUNCAN BROWN, Lascelles, P.Q., Quebec.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women, and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Brown.

In a 184 pound hog the cleaned hair weighs three quarters of a pound, casings one quarter of a pound; grease 1 1/2 pounds, and fertilizer just over six pounds. The actual waste, as distinct from recovered by-products, is forty-two pounds, equal to 22 cents on every dollar paid to the farmer. Several of these by-products are produced in two or three grades and qualities.

In a one thousand pound steer there are about eighteen pounds of bones that are removed from the meat cuts; nine pounds of blood when dried; two pounds of sinews; six pounds of non-edible fats and grease; and twelve pounds of fertilizer. Apart from these and the hide, there is an actual waste of material never recovered amounting to two hundred and fifty pounds, equal in value to 25 cents on every dollar paid to the farmer for the live animal.

Mr. Jennings had been one of the most active members of the Dominion and provincial press associations.

Put on their mettle by the prospects of sliding-scale bonuses for increased production, the coal miners of Britain have put their backs into the work and achieved a record post-war output of 5,307,000 tons for one week. As a result their pay will be increased by about $250,000,000 in the year. Five weeks were selected by the government as a test period as part of the recent coal strike settlement. The miners were told that if they produced between 255,000,000 and 262,000,000 tons in a year of fifty weeks they would get an extra three shillings and sixpence a day, (normally equivalent to about 87 cents) and that when their output reached 266,000,000 tons they would get four shillings.

Blairmore To Go To Lethbridge Tuesday

After the game here tonight, Lethbridge won the toss to have Blairmore visit them on Tuesday next for the first of the final league games. When you buy a diamond you exercise care in selecting one of high quality and value, because even diamonds have flaws and blemishes. Use the same judgment in buying a business college course as you would in buying a diamond. Consult them all and select the one that gives you the value and quality of Garbutt Business College training is not equalled in any other institution.

GARBUTT BUSINESS COLLEGE

A sheriff down in Louisiana forgot to carry out the sentence of the supreme court and hang Louis Edson on the date prescribed for the festivities. This neglect on the part of the sheriff has raised a fine point of law and it looks now as though the young negro will have to be liberated, as under the constitution of the United States
